SUPT. E. F. CRABILL REPORTS ON WELLS

Statement Made Showing That Rumors About Wells Running Dry Are False.

In view of the rumors that have been going the rounds for a week or more that the wells have gone dry and the new water supply is a failure, the following report from the superintendent of the water works committee of the council will be of interest to every citizen.

"To the Water Works committee, Gentlemen:

"I beg to make the following report in reference to the new pumping station.

"We have been pumping more or less since Oct. 1st and started keeping records of hours of operation on Oct. 5th.

"On Oct. 5th we pumped six hours and 15 minutes at the rate of three million gallons per day.

"On Oct. 6th, five hours.

"On Oct. 7th, intermittently.

"On Oct. 8th, the old plant was shut down from 11 a. m. till 5:30 p. m.

"On Oct. 9th, from 11 a. m. till 4 p. m., old plant down.

"On Oct. 10th, pumped from 9:30 a. m. till 6 p. m.

"On Oct. 11th, 9 a. m. till 4:30 p. m., with old plant shut down.

"On Oct. 12th, 9 a. m. till 5 p. m., old plant down.

"On Oct. 13th, 9:30 a. m. till 5 p. m., old plant down.

"On Oct. 14th, 9 a. m. till 5 p. m., with old plant down. On this date we pumped seven hundred and ninety-nine thousand gallons in eight hours. This is 66 1-2 gallons for every man, woman and child in Mishawaka.

"From 8:40 a. m. Oct. 15th to 6 a. m. Oct. 16th, there was pumped 1,495,252 gallons.

"Oct. 16th there was pumped 1,778,480 gallons.

"Oct. 17th there was pumped 1,034,000 gallons.

"Oct. 18th there was pumped 1,532,521 gallons.

"Oct. 19th there was pumped 1,417,108 gallons.

"Oct. 20th there was pumped 1,650,528 gallons.

"Oct. 21st there was pumped 1,735,360 gallons.

"Oct. 22d there was pumped 1,745,480 gallons.

"Oct. 23d there was pumped 1,845,512 gallons.

"Oct. 24th there was pumped 1,795,596 gallons.

"Oct. 25th there was pumped 1,720,268 gallons.

"Oct. 26th there was pumped 1,454,948 gallons.

"On Oct. 18th we took the cap off No. 5 well and measured the height of the ground water, or, in other words, this well not being pumped, its level would indicate the height of the water in the surrounding territory from which our supply was being drawn.

"On Oct. 25th we again examined this well and found that the ground water had risen three feet. This rise, you will note, occurred while we were pumping at the rate of more than six million six hundred thousand gallons per day. Allowing 80 gallons per capita this is seven hundred thousand gallons more than should be pumped at this time of the year.

"A week ago we noticed that the screens were clogging, and upon examining No. 5 well we found the screen filled with stones and sticks of wood. Some of the larger stones had been pulled through the screen, but the larger stones and sticks had been thrown in from the top.

"The indications are that for more of the wells are badly clogged and will have to be cleaned out. We anticipated this and provided for it by capping the wells in such a way that the caps could be taken off and the screens pulled out and cleaned or longer ones of a different type put in it if it was found necessary.

"There was always some doubt about this particular type of well, but being just the right thing, but as the cost was only $5 each it was worth a trial. It is my opinion that they have already earned their cost many times over. We expect to examine the balance of the wells during the coming week and I am sure that a decided improvement will be made and we will have all the water required for any purpose whatever.

"I wish also to remind you that we have started our new plant at the end of a disastrously dry season. Many deep well plants are either shut down or are curtailing on the use of water. I think we are very fortunate in having as good a prospect as we have under such unfavorable conditions.

"It is possible that if another dry season comes on we may need more wells or reservoirs to take care of extra heavy draughts or a fire. This also has been anticipated and provided for. For the past ten days rainy weather has interfered greatly with our work on the wells and finishing the plant, but with a few days fair weather we will have everything in ship shape and all the water necessary.

"I wish to say also that every day should be metered and that as soon as it can be done. As stated above, we are now pumping twice as much water as should be pumped, and with the consumption down to where it should be, we would never be in doubt about having water enough for any fire of any duration.

"Respectfully submitted,

"E. F. CRABILL, Supt."

MIX ADDRESSES LARGE MEETING

Two Enthusiastic Meetings Held by Democrats in First and Third Wards—All Leading Candidates Present.

Despite the inclement weather that prevailed throughout the city Wednesday evening, local democrats responded very nobly to the two meetings in the first and third wards, when Hon. M. W. Mix and the various other candidates to the democratic ticket, fully 800 voters attended both meetings, which will set a pace for the "stem winder" that the independents predict for Saturday night's big rally.

At both meetings Mr. Mix informed the voters that the watchword of his campaign has been to secure the greatest amount of service for the smallest possible cost, and he stood ready to devote the necessary time to the duties of the office if elected, but did not deem it necessary to move the office of the Dodge Mfg. Co. down to the city hall. He asked the support of the people on his previous record as mayor, and stated that he was at all times ready to promote the welfare of the city and also its citizens.

The first ward meeting was called to order by Franz Vogler, who introduced the candidates who comprised the general makeup of the ticket, including Mr. Mix, J. L. Kennedy, candidate for city clerk, Fred Bingham for city judge, Jos. Ganser for city treasurer, David P. Burkhardt and Edward L. Mason, councilmen at large, and Robert G. Priem, ward councilman. Charles Koepfer addressed the audience with a good German talk which seemed to please a large number of Germans present.

Arthur A. Schellinger presided at the third ward drum corps, who held at the corner of Fourth and Center streets, where the candidates all spoke for a few minutes. The candidates were met at this meeting with the usual cordiality of the crowd who rendered several good selections.

Everything is in readiness for the big north side rally which is to be held at the Windsor hall Thursday evening. The Mishawaka Woolen Co. band has been secured and will play several selections at Main and Second streets before proceeding to the north side.

MISHAWAKA PERSONALS.

James Crooks of North Spring st. is seriously ill.

Koepfer, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Parrett, 225 East Eighth st., is very ill.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. August Doll of West Eight st., Tuesday.

Mrs. E. Berette of South Spring st. is quite ill.

Fred Kline has returned to his home in Detroit after spending several days visiting in the city with friends.

BIG THREE GIVE DANCE.

The big three gave a dance in Dixon hall Wednesday night to friends and neighbors. After which refreshments were served. Among the fifteen couples that attended were F. Champ, M. Mucker, and H. Hilderbrand of Logansport, Ind.

MID WEEK PRAYER SERVICES.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Loren M. Edwards, the Rev. Blaine Kirkpatrick, of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, of South Bend, will have charge of the mid-week prayer meeting this evening.

ENTERTAIN CLASS.

Mrs. Hall's music class was entertained Wednesday evening at her home on S. Mill st. Vocal and instrumental selections featured. About thirty were present. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

CUTS HIS HAND.

Edward Rhodes very seriously cut his hand Wednesday while cranking his machine, which required the attention of a physician.

I. O. O. F. MEETING.

A regular meeting of Monitor lodge, No. 236, I. O. O. F., was held Tuesday evening.

WARD WORKERS FOR RALLY ARE SELECTED

Executive Committee Meets Tuesday evening and Further Rally Plans—Celebration to Be Monstrous Affair.

If the plans of the young democrats of Mishawaka materialize, the political rally to be staged by the Young Democratic Voters' club some day this week will be the most interesting celebration of the campaign.

A meeting of the executive committee of the club was held in parlor A of the Mishawaka hotel Tuesday evening and further plans for the campaign and more especially for their rally were discussed.

The young democrats are very much interested in the outcome of the city campaign and are anxious to exert every effort to insure the election of their own ticket.

Every member of the executive committee was present at the meeting Tuesday evening and all were very enthusiastic.

Plans for the rally to be conducted by the Young Voters' club were gone into in detail and various committees were selected to have charge of the various departments of the work of making a decided success of the undertaking.

While detailed plans for the monster celebration planned by the young democrats are being made, the exact date of the rally has not yet been definitely announced.

All the speakers for this rally have not been definitely selected, but it is assumed that Hon. George W. Sands of South Bend will deliver one of the principal addresses of the evening.

Sen. B. P. Shively, who is a particular favorite in Mishawaka and with Mishawaka audiences is wanted by the young voters for at least a short address and an effort will be made to bring him to the city.

At last night's meeting the following committees for each ward were named to carry on the work of the Young Voters' club in their various precincts:

First Ward—Arch LaDow, Nick Weinkauf, Arthur Zimmerman, Julius Muennick, Steve Weber, C. W. Bingham.

Second Ward—Leo Hoersterman, Don Hunter, Joseph Waech, Jr., Joseph Warren, C. Kamm.

Third Ward—Otto Klein, Wm. Krause, Aloys Beesinger, George Koepfer, John Belting, Camiel Van Hock, John Deitchley, Leo Maenhout, Kenneth Sutherland.

Fourth Ward—Ernest Waldner, R. S. Feil, Enis McKinley, Aloys Koepfer, August Dossman, Frank Christoph, Jr., Samuel P. Schwartz.

Fifth Ward—Joseph Bickel, Otto Roggerman, Ross Applegate, Lester Bolin, Charles Hesch.

Arrangements were made Wednesday with Manager George Senger by the Dodge club for a Dodge evening at the Century theater Friday, Oct. 31.

At that time moving pictures of the last Dodge Field day at Springbrook park will be shown. The pictures, which were made by the Pathe people, are even better than the ones taken of the 1912 Field day and present many interesting scenes of the day.

Practically all of the sporting events in the ball park were shown, together with the children's parade, clothes hanging contest and other stunts pulled off on the island.

Manager Senger has arranged for a $200 special vaudeville act, and some surprises that are not being advertised. There will be three shows, the same as usual.

SAYS DITCH WILL HURT, NOT HELP HIS PROPERTY

On the ground that the proposed Schang ditch in Green township will damage his property instead of benefiting it, William Kettinger is contesting the assessment for benefits and asking for an award of damages before Judge Fink in the city court.

The remonstrances against the ditch which will cost $2,500 have been overruled. Evidence has been introduced in support of Kettinger's claim to show that the ditch will drain his huckleberry marsh, thus destroying the production while the land is unfit for any other crop.

UNCALLED FOR LETTERS.

Letters remaining in the postoffice at Mishawaka, Ind., and advertised Oct. 29, 1913:

J. Gardner, Eni Geveves, Clyde Lehman, Mrs. A. B. Porter, V. E. Richter, Miss Clara Shafers, Mrs. L. Shirley.

W. E. BUTTERWORTH, P. M.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS.

All precinct captains, workers and members of the election boards are requested to attend a meeting at the democratic headquarters, 118 W. Second st., Friday evening.—Advertisement.

We lead, others follow. George Stoekinger's tea and coffee store.—Advertisement.

ENTERTAINS AT CARDS.

A card party was given Tuesday afternoon in Orchestra hall by the Woodmen circle, the first favor being awarded to Mrs. Jacob Klein, the second to Mrs. J. B. Fleck of South Bend while the third favor was awarded to Mrs. S. Rissel of South Bend. The party was well attended. Refreshments were served. The circle will entertain at another party in two weeks.

TO RESIDE HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Young have returned here from Rockford, O., and will reside at 113 N. Mill st.

I. O. O. F. MEETING.

A regular meeting of Monitor lodge, No. 236, I. O. O. F., was held Tuesday evening.

OUR FELLER CITIZENS

By HI SIBLEY

CANDIDATES DAY.

We take this opportunity to announce that we do not believe in politics. Politics is and are a bally nuisance and should be abolished. We do not expect to see the millennium if any candidate is elected, nor do we expect the city to go to the dogs if certain ones are not elected, as per advertisement.

However, admittedly not prejudiced, or against any one candidate or any one party it does not follow that we cannot mention the several candidates as plain feller citizens.

Fred Keller, citizens' candidate for mayor, drives a smooth-running high-powered South Bend Six. In spite of the speed possibilities of his car, however, Fred drives at a conservative pace and has not yet run over any pet dogs, chickens, shoats, calves, babies, or other domestic animals down in our neighborhood where he resides.

Pat Joyce, democratic candidate for mayor, is as broad-minded as a big. We have seen him greet those who have proclaimed themselves as his enemies as cordially as he does his best friends.

James Loughman, republican candidate for mayor, lives on South Michigan st., the most direct and best automobile road from Michigan to Kentucky, but Jim knows a horse from a hog, and would rather ride behind one than in a six-cylinder, self-starting, four speed car with electric lights, running water and collapsible seats.

Lewis C. Landon, progressive candidate for mayor, conducts one of the most sanitary and therefore popular soda fountains in the city. During the Sun day campaign, when ice cream soda took precedence over fog-horns and gin-rickies among our best people, Lewis' drug store was a very convenient place to drop in for refreshments after one of the evangelist's meetings.

Herbert Warner, citizens' candidate for city judge, was a game young man in his school days. One summer he worked his way across the Atlantic in a cattle ship, and from his accounts he had a very strenuous time. Stories of the hardships of traveling on a cattle ship have come to us from other sources, and we are of the opinion that this form of recreation takes a whole lot more grit to get through with than most young fellows possess.

Pat Houlihan, democratic candidate for city judge, wears gold rimmed spectacles, gray fedora and black overcoat in addition of course he affects the usual pants, vest, shoes, etc. He is quiet and dignified.

C. P. Fergus, republican candidate for city judge, used to wait for the little Vassar av. scooter with more patience than most of the commuters. In this connection we might add that when you see a resident of the north side with prematurely grey hair it is a direct result of standing around in the rain with arms full of packages waiting for that vivacious little bob-tailed conveyance.

Alexander Langel, citizens' candidate for city clerk, is a Hungarian by birth. Hungary produces some of our sturdiest citizens, and incidentally Budapest, the capital, is famous for its beautiful women, e. g., Mizzi Hajos. However, that has no bearing on the matter in hand.

Harvey Rostiser, democratic candidate for city clerk, makes the kind of speech that is to our liking. It is brief, very much to the point and does not give the speaker opportunity to doze away or let his thoughts go wool gathering.

William Nies, republican candidate for city clerk, takes an optimistic view of things in general, and enters into whatever is on hand with an enthusiasm that makes him popular with all who know him.

Clem Bill, progressive candidate for city clerk, who could reverse his name and get just as good results, lives in River Park, River Park, he is known as a part of South Bend, although geographically it is nearer to Mishawaka.

DISMISS 6 CASES CLEAR UP DOCKET

Two Arson Cases and Many Minor Ones Wiped Off by Montgomery — Ready For Next Term.

To clear up the criminal docket in the circuit court in preparation for the November term, Prosecutor Montgomery Wednesday filed dismissals of 16 cases. Most of the cases are old cases, many of which had been pending for a long time.

Others were actions brought against defendants who were sentenced on other charges filed at the same time.

Among the cases dismissed was the case of the subject, "Our American torch" of the arson trust of the middle west, for arson, and a joint action against Fink and Ben Kahn for larceny.

Fink's confession was obtained in the court, just here and Prosecutor Montgomery consented to his removal to Chicago where he is testifying against the men "higher up."

Kahn, it will be remembered, was convicted of arson, although not at liberty on bond pending his appeal, and consequently the larceny case was dismissed.

The case of Harry Brown, junior member of the adjusting firm of Spira Zar and Brown, charged with arson in connection with the Kahn fire, was also dismissed as Brown is under indictment for the same crime in Chicago and the evidence against him in the local case was not sufficient to obtain conviction.

The other cases which were stricken from the docket follow: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Covey, Ezra Rhodes and Florence Rhodes, obstructing a public highway; Ollie H. Lee, failure to support; Roy Halton, larceny; Leroy Schoff, wife desertion; Andrew Chaporis, permitting music in saloon; William Brown, petit larceny; Harry Kahn, larceny; Louis Hojmedel, petit larceny; Roy Winchester, forgery; Walter Hayes, assault and battery with intent, and three cases against John King, charging intoxication, interfering with an officer and assault and battery.

MADE ROS' WIVES
APPEAL FOR AID

Fear Brothers of Slain President Will Share His Fate—Huerta and Blanquet Elected

VERA CRUZ, Oct. 30.—Senoras Evaristo and Daniel Madero, wives of the two Madero brothers, arrested by Gen. Huerta's orders at Monterey on a charge of treason, applied Wednesday to the United States for assistance in their behalf.

U. S. Consul Canada and Special Envoy John Lind told the women that the American government already had made representations to the Mexican cabinet to secure a fair trial for both men.

The women were hysterical when they arrived here with their husbands, who are to be tried at Mexico City. They wept as they told Mr. Lind of their fears that both men would be assassinated as was their brother, ex-President Madero.

A bitter hatred for U. S. Consul Wm. P. Canada has developed as a result of the escape of Felix Diaz.

An investigation is being conducted by the Mexican government to put Canada in a bad light and this already has had effect. A government official said that Canada is the direct cause of Diaz going to the German hotel and was the agent who negotiated for the rent of the apartments in which Diaz lived while there.

In proof of this he told the authorities that when Diaz left on short order without paying his bill, the bill was sent to Mr. Canada.

METHODISTS CHEER FOR PRES. WILSON

American Consulates No Long- er Agencies For Breweries, Declares Kansas Clergyman at Indianapolis Meeting.

BY LAWRENCE VAUGHN.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—Over 3,000 delegates representing M. E. churches from all over the United States, assembled at Tomlinson hall, Wednesday morning to begin the second day of the big National Convention of Methodist Men which holds sessions here the rest of the week.

Bishop C. B. Smith, of St. Louis, presided at the Monday session.

Bishop William F. Anderson, of Cleveland, who talked at the St. Paul's M. E. church of South Bend last spring, was the principal speaker at the session Tuesday night.

He talked on the subject, "Our American Cities," and said that when the business life of a city becomes stronger than her moral life, the church will degenerate.

Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice president, was to have opened the session Tuesday, but was prevented on account of the death of his wife. Rev. Joshua Stansfield, father-in-law of Rev. J. L. Gardner, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church of South Bend, had the honor in his absence.

Rev. Stansfield pleaded for a spirit of conservation to high ideals in his opening remarks.

Bishop McDowell Speaks.

Bishop W. F. McDowell, of the Northwestern district, in which South Bend is located, was one of the prominent speakers this morning.

He dwelt on the differing conditions in a new and changing world and said that the missions of the Methodist church is determined by the Christian message.

A most stirring scene was the cheering, prolonged and animated, which came when Dr. Clarence T. Wilson, of Topeka, Kan., reported Wednesday for the committee on temperance.

"Thank God we now have a Christian in the White House, a Christian secretary of state and American consuls everywhere," said Dr. Wilson. He referred to the action of Pres. Taft in vetoing the Webb-Kenyon bill, and said that this action did more to send Taft to unprecedented defeat than any other cause.

WIFE DISMISSES SUIT AGAINST PROF. GREEN

The divorce suit of Mabel Green against Jerome J. Green, a professor at Notre Dame university, was dismissed by Mrs. Green's attorneys Wednesday. The suit was filed in September.

Mrs. Green in her complaint alleged that on one occasion her husband had left her penniless in England and that on another he left her and their child to live in a "dugout" in the Michigan woods.

EXPERT TESTIMONY
HEARD IN KIEV CASE

KIEV, Russia, Oct. 30.—The expert testimony of physicians occupied most of the day at the trial of Mendel Beliss, charged with having killed the boy Yushinsky. The experts agreed that at least two persons were implicated in the actual killing of the boy but were divided as to whether the prime object
